The “URSI-Japan Radio Science Meeting” (URSI-JRSM) is the URSI conference organized by the Japan National Committee of URSI (JNC-URSI). The URSI-JRSM provides a regional scientific forum for radio scientists and engineers in Japan and the Asian region. The objective of the Meeting is to review current research trends, present new discoveries, and make plans for future research and special projects in all areas of radio science, and a particular emphasis is placed on enhancing the visibility of URSI in the Asian countries and encouraging young scientists to contribute to various URSI activities.

The URSI-JRSM 2026 will have a scientific program including oral/poster sessions and keynote/invited lectures from all the 10 URSI Commissions.

Call for Papers:

Oral and poster sessions will cover scientific activities by the URSI Commissions A-K:

- Commission A: Electromagnetic metrology
- Commission B: Fields and waves
- Commission C: Radiocommunication systems and signal processing
- Commission D: Electronics and photonics
- Commission E: Electromagnetic environment and interference
- Commission F: Wave propagation and remote sensing
- Commission G: Ionospheric radio and propagation
- Commission H: Waves in plasmas
- Commission J: Radio astronomy
- Commission K: Electromagnetics in biology and medicine

Prospective authors are invited to submit a one-page abstract via the URSI-JRSM 2026 website by February 5, 2026. Please visit the Conference website for instructions of paper submissions.
